

Shree Yoganand Swami Arts College, Basmathnagar Di. Hingoli

Student feedback on syllabus

Academic year 2023-24

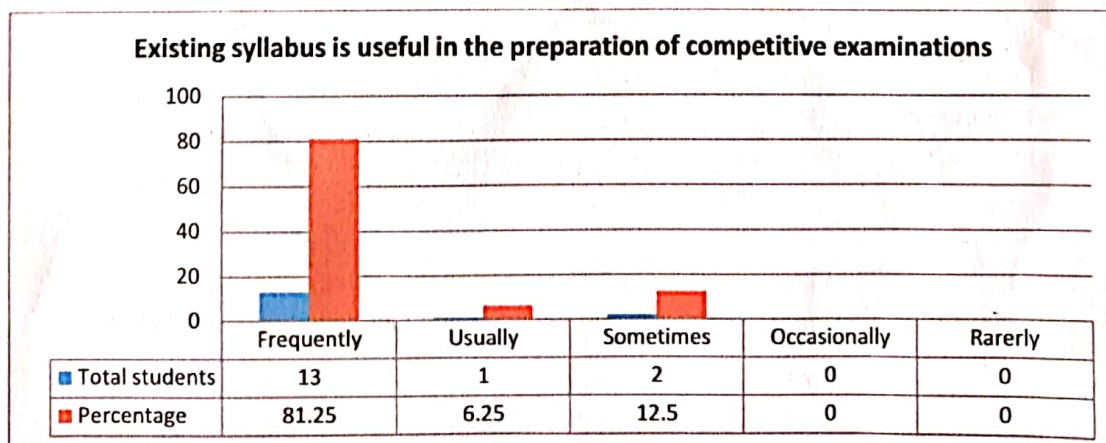

Feedback Analysis :

The institution obtained feedback on the existing syllabus for the academic year 2023-24 from its stakeholders like students, teachers and alumni. The feedback from the above stakeholders was collected, tabulated and analyzed to take proper actions on their opinions. Before handing over the questionnaire to the stakeholders, the concerning faculty put its way to fill up. He also helped students in filling up the feedback by translating the questions in the mother tongue of students to receive positive and reliable replies. All questions consisted five replies based on its validity and marks such as frequently (5), Usually (4), Sometimes (3), Occasionally (2) and Rarely (1).

Analysis of the students' feedback on the syllabus:

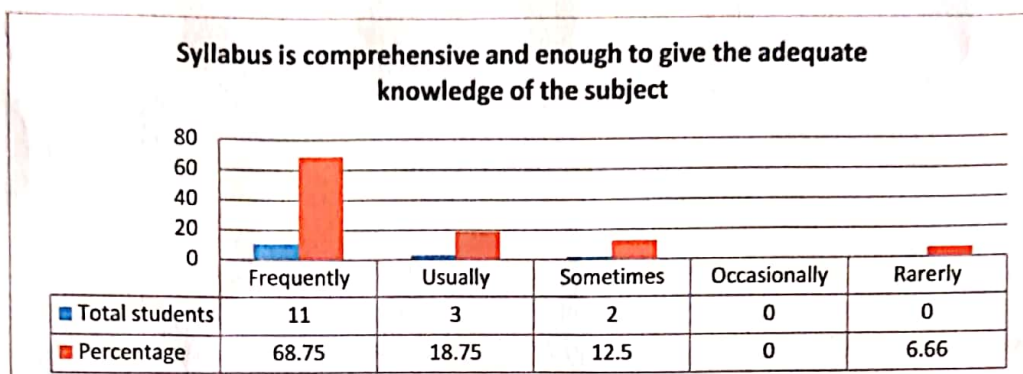

The institution obtained 16 the feedback from the students of third year to receive maximum positive results.. The feedback cum questionnaire contained ten questions. The concerning faculty collected, selected the feedback and finally arrived at the conclusion with the help of their replies as mentioned in the questionnaire.

1. When the students were asked whether the existing syllabus is useful in the preparation of competitive examinations, 13 (81.25%) students replied that it is frequently useful in the competitive examinations, 1 (6.25%) replied that it is usually useful in competitive examinations and only 2 (12.50%) out of them said that it is sometimes useful in the preparation of competitive examinations. It becomes clear from the following diagram:

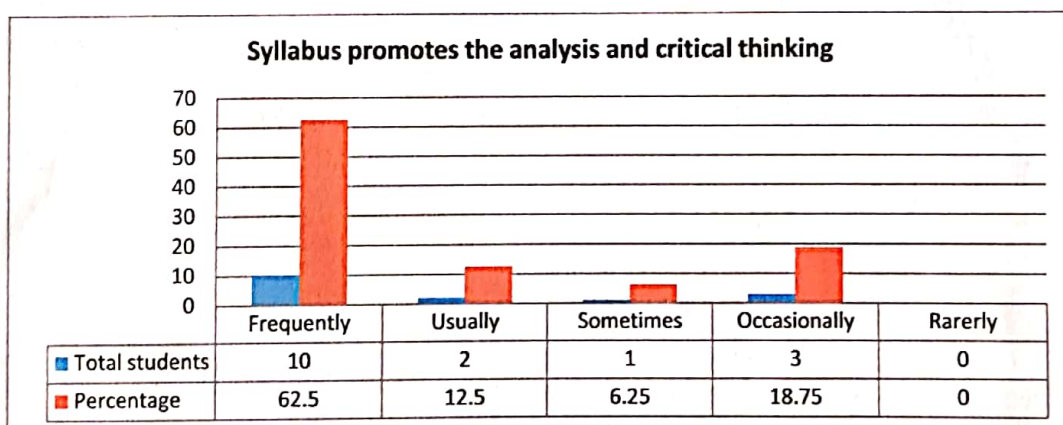

frequently comprehensive to give the adequate knowledge, 3 students (18.75%) said that it usually gives comprehensive and enough to give adequate knowledge of subjects, 2 (12.50%) students told that syllabus is sometimes comprehensive. and enough to give adequate knowledge of the subject, . It becomes clear from the following diagram.

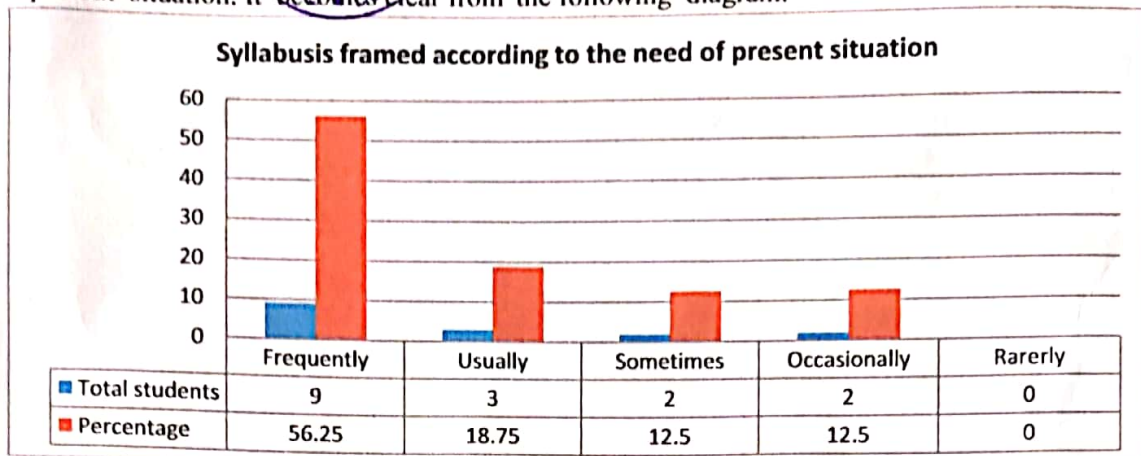

Q. 5 The students were asked to put their opinion on the syllabus if it promotes the analysis and critical thinking. Out of 16 students, 10 (62.50 %) students said that it frequently promotes the analysis and thinking 2 (12.50 %) told that it usually promotes the analysis and thinking, only 1 (6.25 %) student replied that sometimes it promotes the analysis and critical thinking and 3 students (18.75%) replied that the present syllabus occasionally promotes the analysis and thinking. It becomes clear form the following diagram:

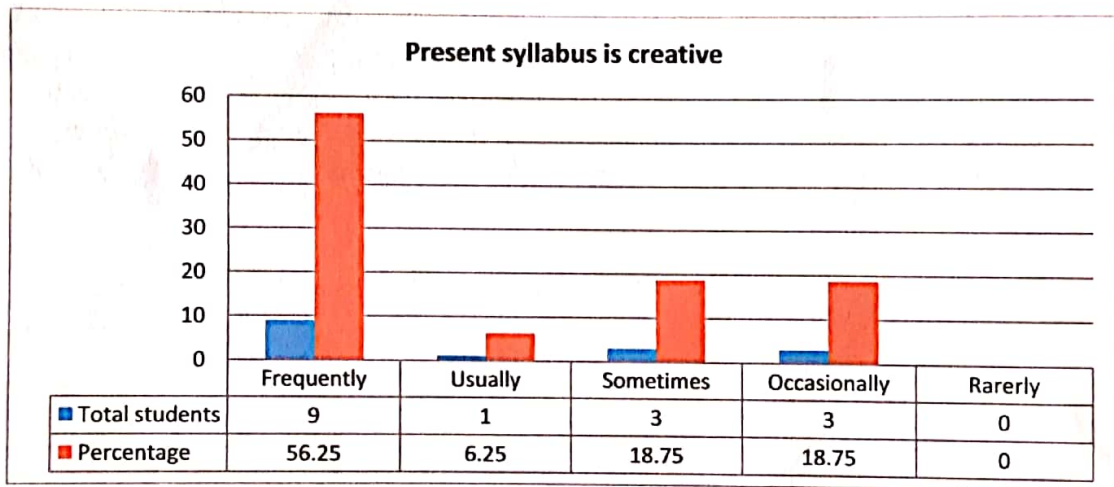

6. Students were asked to highlight on the Syllabus to know if it is framed according to the need of present situation or not. 9 students (56.25 %) cleared it by saying that the syllabus is frequently framed according to its need to present situation, 3 students opined (18.75 %) that it is usually framed according to its need to present situation, 2 (12.50 %) students told that that it is sometimes framed according to its need to present situation and 2 out of them (12.50 %) declared that the syllabus is occasionally framed according to its need to present situation. It becomes clear from the following diagram.

7. Another questioned tried to know the opinion of students to know the efficacy of the syllabus. They were asked how far the present syllabus is creative. 9 (56.25 %) out of 16 said that the present syllabus is frequently creative and 1 (6.25%) declared that the present syllabus is usually creative , 3 students (18.75 %) noted that the present syllabus is sometimes creative and only 3 (18.75 %) students told that the present syllabus is occasionally creative . It becomes clear from the following diagram.

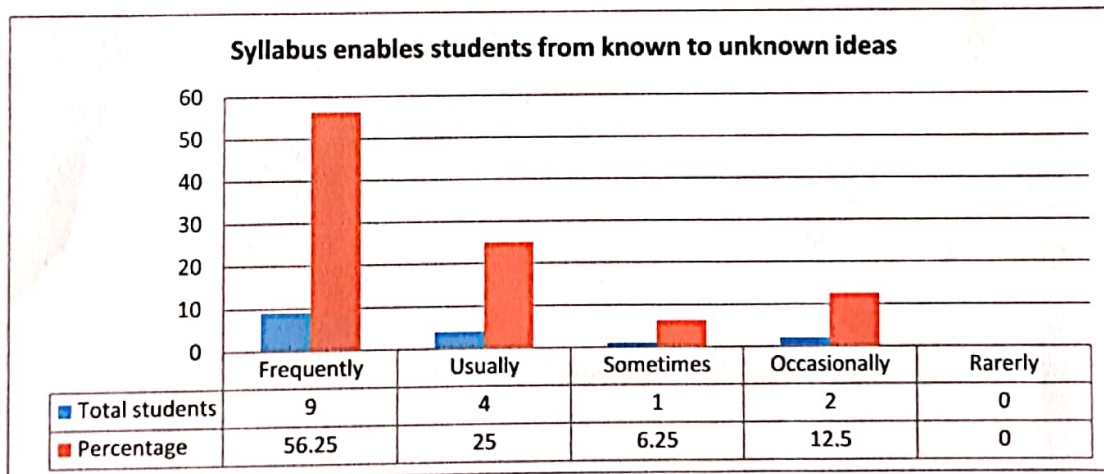

Q. 8 Cross cutting issues in the syllabus make students to step against them. The students were asked to indicate how far the syllabus makes them sensitive to about the cross-cutting issues. 10 (62.50 %) out of 16 students cleared that the syllabus frequently makes them sensitive about the cross- cutting issues, 1 (6.25 %) students opined that the syllabus usually makes them sensible about the cross-cutting issues and 3 students (18.75 %) among them opined that it sometimes makes sensitive to the cross cutting issues and only 2 (12.50 %) students told that the syllabus occasionally makes them sensitive to the cross cutting issues. It becomes clear from the following diagram:

Q. 9 Syllabus must add the extra knowledge replacing the previous one. The students were asked to have their opinion to know if the syllabus enables them to from known to unknown ideas. 9 (56.25 %) expressed that the present syllabus frequently carry them from known to unknown, 4 (25%) among them replied that it usually carries them from known to unknown, 1 (6.25 %) students replied that the syllabus sometimes enables them to carry from known to unknown ideas whereas only 2 (12.50%) replied that the syllabus occasionally enables them to carry from known to unknown ideas. It becomes clear from the following diagram:

Q. 10 Value based education plays a vital role in building of the character. So, the feedback cum questionnaire contained a question on value based education. When the students were asked to put their opinion on value based education in syllabus. 11 students (68.75 %) opined that the syllabus frequently offers value based education, 2 (12.50 %) told that the syllabus usually offers value based education, 2 (12.50 %) student feel that that the syllabus sometimes offers value based education and only 1 (6.25%) among them replied that the syllabus occasionally offers value based education . The picture becomes clear from the following table:

 IQAC Coordinator
 Shri Yoganand Swami Arts College
 Basmat Dist.Hingoli

 Principal
 Shri Yoganand Swami Art's Collage
 Basmathnagar,Dist.Hingoli